

GORDONSTOUN

Broader experiences, broader minds.

TEACHER OF SCIENCE

Reports to: Head of Science

Job Purpose: Gordonstoun has been leading the way in character education for more than 80 years. Our uniquely broad curriculum provides challenge in the classroom, at sea and in the mountains, on the stage and on the sports fields and enables students to discover the truth in our motto – Plus Est En Vous – there is more in you. The key focus of this role is to enthuse students and promote the importance of science to the young people of Gordonstoun. Through your outstanding practice you will support students in gaining formal qualifications and aid them in taking their place as twenty-first century international citizens.

Responsibilities of all members of staff:

- Comply with Gordonstoun's policies and procedures on Child Protection and Health and Safety.
- Contribute in a positive way to the ethos of the school in line with Gordonstoun's values: Safe; Positive; Improving.
- Carry out any other task as required from time to time in order to support the School.

Major responsibilities of the role:

Curriculum:

- To plan and teach excellent lessons.
- To build good relationships with all students.
- Be a leading classroom practitioner with a proven track record of success.
- To be committed to developing strategies to improve teaching and learning.
- To develop the skills of learners to equip them for the 21st century.
- To keep up to date with recent developments in teaching, including use of ICT in the classroom.
- To mark and assess student work regularly.
- To establish and make explicit the aims and objectives of the relevant subject department they are working in and to help to evaluate and develop curricula to meet these objectives.
- To ensure that appropriate differentiation of the curriculum is made to meet the needs of all levels of pupil ability.
- To keep up with developments in their relevant teaching subject through attending appropriate INSET sessions

Contribution within the science department:

- To demonstrate excellent teaching skills and to be a model of good practice.
- To inspire students and to provide enthusiasm in this curriculum area.
- To promote the subject beyond the classroom e.g. extra-curricular activities, wall displays.
- To provide academic support and liaise with higher education in conjunction with the careers department.
- To promote cross curricular co-operation.

Students

- To establish appropriately high levels of expectation of pupils at all Key Stages by setting down clear guidelines for establishing good standards of behaviour and achievement, including the careful presentation of work and the care of books and equipment.
- To follow and to contribute to the relevant department procedures for the monitoring and recording of student progress.
- To ensure the reporting policy is followed
- To adhere to the school's assessment, reporting and recording framework and to ensure that the agreed policy of the relevant department is followed by members of the team including the consistent awarding of Merits across the Department.
- To prepare students for external examinations which involve internal assessment and external moderation and to provide marks arising from these assessments to Heads of Departments.
- To participate in internal moderation of external examination components which are assessed internally and moderated externally, within their department
- To help with the assessment of sitting of internal exams where appropriate.

Resources and accommodation

- To enhance the learning environment through the effective display of students' work and other materials and through care of the environment.

Whole School Responsibilities

- To further the tone and purpose of the School by example.
- To foster and support activities in the interests of the school community.
- To be a member of school committees and working parties as appropriate

Community Responsibilities

- To ensure effective dialogue with parents in accordance with school policies
- To foster our relationship with feeder schools and higher education institutions
- To liaise with external agencies and employers as necessary
- To develop our relationship with other schools
- To write reports on individual students on their progress in their relevant subject in accordance with the school reporting policies and timetables

Additional responsibilities of a full-time member of staff

- To help cover short term absence of staff.
- To assist with the invigilation of exams.
- To participate in the weekly Activity and Service programme of the school.
- To participate in the staffing of any additional curricular activities and events. For example: expeditions, team fixtures, rehearsals etc.
- Unless occupying another position of pastoral responsibility to act as a Tutor in one of the boarding houses.
- To assist with school duties e.g. travel, leave out weekends and social duty.
- To take a full part in the life of the School beyond the classroom, including regular attendance at school functions.
- To attend morning chapel at least twice a week.
